What a Wonderful World

George David Weiss and Bob Thiele

I see trees of green, red roses too,
I see them bloom for me and you,
and I think to myself "what a wonderful world."

I see skies of blue and clouds of white,
the bright--- blessed day, the dark-- sacred night
and I think to myself "what a wonderful world."

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky are also on the faces of people goin' by.
I see friends shakin' hands, sayin' "How do you do?"
They're really sayin' "I love you!"

I hear babies cry, I watch them grown They'll learn much more, than I'll ever know
and I think to myself "what a wonderful world."
Yes, I think to myself "what a wonderful world."

Book Discussion – March 7th

We had a really good discussion on Lakoff's book, Don't Think of an Elephant on Wednesday. We discussed the book as well as actions that we can take as a group and a church to help frame our values to the community. Our discussion was so good, that by popular demand, we will continue our discussion on March 7th. If you haven't finished reading the book, now's your chance! Please bring your ideas, thoughts, listening ears, as well as ideas for other books you would like to read. See Linda Darga for additional information. See you then!

New Year...New Signup Sheet for Chancel Flower Donations

As you leave the sanctuary, you'll notice there's a new signup sheet for donating flowers each Sunday. Please take a moment to add your name and the person/event you wish to honor. Suggested donation is $20 but is negotiable depending on your situation. If you have questions, see Lencha Acker or call her at 313-393-8544. Thank You!
