What a Wonderful World
George David Weiss and Bob Thiele

I see trees of green, red roses too,
I see them bloom for me and you,
and I think to myself “what a wonderful world.”

I see skies of blue and clouds of white,
the bright --- blessed day, the dark --- sacred night
and I think to myself “what a wonderful world.”

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky are also on the faces of people goin’ by.
I see friends shakin’ hands, sayin’ “How do you do?”
They’re really sayin’ “I love you!”

I hear babies cry, I watch them grown They’ll learn much more, than I’ll ever know
and I think to myself “what a wonderful world.”
Yes, I think to myself “what a wonderful world.”

Gonna Build a Mountain from “Stop the World—I Want to Get Off” words and music by Les Bricusse and Anthony Newley

Gonna build a mountain—from a little hill.
Gonna build a mountain—least I hope I will.
Gonna build a mountain—gonna build it high
I don’t know how I’m gonna do, only know I’m gonna try.

Gonna build a daydream—from a little hope.
Gonna push that daydream—up the mountain slope.
Gonna build a daydream—gonna see it through.
Gonna build a mountain and a daydream, gonna make em both come true.

Gonna build a heaven—from a little hell.
Gonna build a heaven—and I know darn well,
If I build my mountain— with a lot of care,
And take my daydream up the mountain, heaven will be waiting there.

Closing Hymn: If Every Woman in the World #1026 words & music by Karen MacKay and Nancy Nordlie

1. If ev’ry woman in the world had her mind set on freedom, if ev’ry woman in the world dreamed a sweet dream of peace,
if ev’ry woman of ev’ry nation, young and old, each generation, held her hands out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

2. If ev’ry man in the world had his mind set on freedom, if ev’ry brother stood for brother as a witness for peace,
if ev’ry man of ev’ry nation, young and old, each generation, held his hands out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

3. If ev’ry leader in the world shared a vision of freedom, if ev’ry leader in the world shared a sweet dream of peace,
if ev’ry leader of ev’ry nation, worked for justice and liberation, holding hands out in the name of love, there would be no more war.

4. If ev’ry nation in the world set a true course for freedom, if ev’ry nation raised its children in a culture of peace,
if all our sons and all our daughters reached in friendship across the waters, re-fusing to be enemies, there would be no more war.

Announcements and Events – March 10, 2013

Sunday Morning Coffee Hour
All are welcome to join us after the service in the Social Hall for Social Hour. Please remember that your donations to Social Hour make our hospitality possible.

Vespers Wednesday – March 13th
Al Acker, ably assisted by soundman Dan Secrest, will feature the poetry of Denise Levertov. When she was five, she declared she would be a writer. At 12, she sent some of her poems to T. S. Eliot, who replied with a two-page letter of encouragement. Much later, in response to the Vietnam War, Levertov joined the War Resisters League, and in 1968 signed the “Writers and Editors War Tax Protest” pledge. The music will honor the memory of Van Cliburn, who died at the end of February, with selections from his CD "My Favorite Chopin." Vespers runs from 6:00 - 7:00pm on the 2nd Wednesday of each month.

97th Birthday Celebration: Fundraiser to Benefit the Preservation of our Skinner Organ

Chancel Flower Donations
Our custom for providing flowers for each Sunday service is to have members and friends donate them in honor or memory of a person or event. The signup sheet is in the back of the church (the “narthex”). Please add your name and the person/event you wish to honor. The suggested donation of $20 is negotiable if your situation requires. Lencha Acker purchases the flowers each Saturday at Eastern Market and brings them to church. The donor takes the flowers home to enjoy and returns the vase later. Questions?
