Sunday Sermons

3/10, TODAY, 11:00AM – “Women and the American Presidency”

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

This year, a record number of women are running for the presidency of the United States. Today's sermon will focus on this phenomenon in American politics, and what has brought us to this moment when women are determined to lead the country.

3/17 11:00AM – “A Conversation with Jane Addams”

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

This dialogical sermon was first offered in 2002 at the Neighborhood Unitarian Universalist Church in Pasadena, California by the Rev. Dr. Lee Barker, now President of Meadville Lombard Theological School in Chicago. Inspired by the biography of Jane Addams by Jean Bethke Elshtain, Rev. Barker wanted a way to tell the important work Jane Addams did with Chicago's immigrant population and the nation's peace movement without sounding like a history lecture. This is a re-enactment of that dialogical sermon.
