Sunday Sermons

4/21, TODAY, 11:00AM – "Educating Tomorrow's Leaders in Today's American Society"

Dr. Russell Kavalhuna, Guest Speaker

Henry Ford College President Russell Kavalhuna will discuss what leadership means for our young people today. Current leaders were influenced by a very different sphere of influences than that of young adults today.

4/28 11:00AM – "On Doubt"

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Murray Butler, Minister

Last Sunday, many churches around us celebrated Easter. The Sunday after, Christians often tell the story of "Doubting Thomas," the disciple who did not believe in Jesus' resurrection. Rev. Murray will talk about the history of the tradition of Thomas in the early Christian church, and further explore the importance of doubt in any life of faith.

OUR SHARE THE PLATE guest recipient this Sunday is the Unitarian Universalist Ministry for Earth (UUME). It envisions a world in which reverence, gratitude, and care for the living Earth are central to the lives of all people. Its purpose is to inspire, facilitate, and support personal, congregational, and denominational practices that honor and sustain the Earth and all beings. It affirms and promotes the seven principles of the UUA, including: "Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part." Although the UU Ministry for Earth has close ties to the UUA, it is a separate not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization with an independent Board of Directors. It seems appropriate that UUME be the recipient in the same month as Earth Day, which is Monday, April 22.

The rules for the Share the Plate Sunday are as follows: Any funds received during the offertory that have no designation will be split 50/50 between our guest recipient and the church. Please mark in the memo area of your check or on the envelope as to how you want your donation to be allocated. Share the Plate donations do not count toward your pledge.

VESPERS COMING UP: Put Wednesday, April 24 on your calendars for Vespers. Nancy Owen Nelson and Alexander Payne Morgan will present the April Vespers by reading poetry about the historical and more recent South. Nancy Owen Nelson is the author of a memoir, Searching for Nannie B: Connecting Three Generations of Southern Women (2015) and a poetry chapbook, My Heart Wears No Colors (2018). Alexander Payne Morgan's poetry has appeared in Dunes Review, The MacGuffin, Peninsula Poets, Sequesterum, and Crack the Spine among others. His chapbook Loneliness Among Primates was published in 2018 by Kelsay Books.
