Sunday Sermons

5/5, TODAY, 11:00AM – “Cinco de Mayo”
The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister
One of the most popular celebrations of the year, Cinco de Mayo is a celebration of Mexican-American culture. But do we even know what we are celebrating, or that this is a much more popular celebration in the United States than it is in Mexico? Today, we will explore the commemoration of the Mexican Army’s victory over the French Empire at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862 and understand better what this celebration has become for us today.

5/12 11:00AM – “Birthing Revolution, Birthing Hope”
Siwatu-Salama Ra
Mother and organizer Siwatu-Salama Ra will share her experience being raised by an activist mother along with a village of Detroit organizers, and how she passes on the generational wealth of love, social justice, and community power to her children. She grew up in the environmental justice movement and is currently the co-director of East Michigan Environmental Action Council. In addition to her work locally and across the country, Siwatu represented Detroit and the United States at global social justice and climate justice events in France, Turkey, and Senegal. She also led youth organizing and media justice work including the Young Educators Alliance and Detroit Future Youth.
