Announcements and Events – May 22, 2016

Coffee Hour

First UU's coffee hour will be held in the Parlor on today, Sunday, May 22. The Center for Progressive Leadership's monthly training will be in the Social Hall so we'll move to the Parlor for our coffee and conversation.

May 25 Vespers

May 25 vespers will be held in the parlor at 6pm featuring the poetry of recently deceased poet and antiwar activist priest Daniel Berrigan among others, interspersed with musical selections yet to be determined. Please come join us for a relaxing hour of beauty and community spirit.

One-On-One— 05/029/16, After the Service

As a result of our phenomenal growth as a congregation, we have a record number of new members. Let's all get to know each other, at our first One-On-One, on Sunday, May 29, 2016 at 12:30 pm.

Juneteenth Book Discussion

On Juneteenth Sunday, June 19, after service, the Social Justice Committee will host a discussion of Between the World and Me, a meditation on race in America by Ta-Nehisi Coates, who Toni Morrison has called the James Baldwin of his generation. The book is available from local libraries, and also at a 10% discount from Source Booksellers on Cass at Canfield. We hope you can join us!

Committee Fair—07/10/16, 12:30 pm

Oh, we wish things happened at First UU with magic, but it takes everyone volunteering to make this a great church. Committee Chairs/Leaders/ Coordinators are encouraged to be part of our upcoming Committee Fair.

Centennial Celebration Photos

Danny Rebb captured some great photos of our centennial celebrations. You may view photos at First UU Detroit Centennial Google Photos: <https://goo.gl/photos/zST2269cUG2YdmQR7>. Sunday Sermons and Events

- 5/29 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Memorial Day Blues”
Speaker: The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray
Memorial Day is often a hard time to reconcile for lovers of peace. We do want to honor the sacrifices of those who went before us, and at the same time, want to insist on alternatives to war in the present and future. How do we strike a resonant note that allows both for respect and rebellion? How can we be patriotic and critical all at the same time?
- 6/5 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Prejudice and Difference”
Speaker: The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray
One of the ways that we often fail as individuals and as a society is by adhering to prejudices, some of which we are conscious of, and others that live insidiously deep. Today, we will talk about how we address those issues and how to confront the biases that we hold.
