Announcements and Events – June 5, 2016

Chancel Flower Donations

Today's flowers are given by Margaret Beck.

Social Hall Today

The social hall is rented today for a baby shower. Coffee hour will be held in the Parlor.

Membership Committee Meeting: June 8, 2016, 6:00 pm – We will be meeting near the Church office.

Membership Book Signing: June 12, 2016, After the Service – Please bring your completed forms, found at <http://www.1stuu.org/Membership/membership.php>. If you are interested in becoming a member, please see Regina Weiss.

Juneteenth Book Discussion:

On Juneteenth Sunday, June 19, after service, the Social Justice Committee will host a discussion of “Between the World and Me,” a meditation on race in America by Ta-Nehisi Coates, who Toni Morrison has called the James Baldwin of his generation. The book is available from local libraries, and also at a 10% discount from Source Booksellers on Cass at Canfield. We hope you can join us!

General Assembly, June 22-26

UU Detroit will have great representation at our national annual conference in Columbus, Ohio, this year. Because our church census is now over 100, we're entitled to three delegates at regional and national assemblies. Our delegates for 2016 General Assembly are Robert Johnson, Danny Rebb, and Kathe Stevens. There are quite a few other UU Detroiters who are attending. If you want to do some informal planning for GA, let's meet in coffee hour on June 5 and 12 — just get up, ring the bell, and make an announcement!

Announcements and Events – June 5, 2016

Committee Fair: July 10, 2016, 12:30 pm

All committee chairs, are reminded to plan to have a display for the Committee Fair on July 10th, after the service. Members and friends are encouraged to be part of the Fair.

Greeters/Ushers Needed

Volunteer ushers and greeters are encouraged to sign up for July and August. Please see Glenn Maxwell if you have any questions.

Sunday Sermons and Events

Intro to UU of Detroit: TODAY, 12:30 pm – We invite all those who are interested in learning more about Unitarian Universalism to attend. We will be meeting in the church narthex

6/12 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Moral Imagination”

Speaker: The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray

A favorite way to teach ethics is through the subject of “moral imagination,” by which one studies literary characters in order to come to understand the dynamics of the choices made by the characters. Stepping out of your own shoes and into the shoes of another can promote understanding and empathy.

6/26 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Breaking Good”

Speaker: The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray

Two years ago, one of television's most popular shows, Breaking Bad, went off the air. Its central character, Walter White, on a descent into evil, is a fascinating study of human ambition and self-delusion over the course of its five seasons. We will examine what Breaking Bad might teach us about how to live well in a world that sometimes pulls us toward the worst sides of our natures.
