Sunday Sermons

6/16, TODAY, 11:00am – “Where in the World is God?”

Rev. Dr. Diane Baker, Guest Speaker

In our world today, around every corner and on every news outlet, we are bombarded with reports about the worst that is going on in our communities, nations and environment. It's easy to get disheartened, despondent and even depressed. We could be convinced that we're on the slippery slope down into the abyss. However, we are reminded every day in many ways that God is in the mix, pulling us onto the path that brings health, healing and wholeness. We just need eyes to see.

June 23 11:00am – “Where from Here?”

Pastor Bill and Lydia Wylie-Kellermann, Guest Speakers

Eleven years ago, before it was legal in Michigan, Lydia Wylie-Kellermann and her partner Erinn Fahey were married at St Peter's Episcopal Detroit. In consequence, ecclesiastical charges were brought against her father, Bill Wylie-Kellermann, a United Methodist pastor. Now, the UMC is about to split over the full inclusion of LGBTQ members in the church. Lydia and Bill will share out of their experience in relation to the present moment.
