Sunday Sermons

6/23, TODAY, 11:00am – “Where from Here?”

Pastor Bill and Lydia Wylie-Kellermann, Guest Speakers

Eleven years ago, before it was legal in Michigan, Lydia Wylie-Kellermann and her partner Erinn Fahey were married at St Peter's Episcopal Detroit. In consequence, ecclesiastical charges were brought against her father, Bill Wylie-Kellermann, a United Methodist pastor. Now, the UMC is about to split over the full inclusion of LGBTQ members in the church. Lydia and Bill will share out of their experience in relation to the present moment.

6/30 11:00am – “The Spiritual Lives of LGBTQ People”

Daniel Horrigan, Guest Speaker

Social worker and storyteller Daniel Horrigan will present on the various religious experiences of LGBTQ people. This speech will examine barriers to faith practices for Queer folks and shine a light on successful models of welcoming churches. We will also use this opportunity to acknowledge ways in which we as UU's are successful in welcoming and including the LGBTQ community and discover ways in which we can do this better.

Closing Hymn: #1014 Answering the Call of Love

This song followed from a 2004 phone call when a reporter asked how the UUA would respond to the marriage equality controversy in the Massachusetts courts

1. The promise of the Spirit: faith, hope and love abide. And so ev'ry soul is blessed and made whole; the truth in our hearts is our guide.

Chorus: We are answering the call of love: hands joined together as hearts beat as one. Emboldened by faith, we dare to proclaim we are standing on the side of love.

2. Sometimes we build a barrier to keep love tightly bound. Corrupted by fear, unwilling to hear, denying the beauty we've found.

(Chorus)

3. A bright new day is dawning when love will not divide. Reflections of grace in ev'ry embrace, fulfilling the vision divine.

(Chorus)
