Announcements and Events – July 3, 2016

Chancel Flower Donations

Today's flowers are given by Elayne Sikelianos In loving memory of Helene Pappamarkou, mother of Yvanne, Elayne and Trina.

Introduction to UU Detroit- TODAY, 12:30 pm

All visitors and attendees are encouraged to attend this information session in the Church narthex. We will attempt to answer any questions about Unitarian Universalism that you may have.

Greeters/Ushers Needed

Volunteer ushers and greeters are encouraged to sign up for July and August. Please see Glenn Maxwell if you have any questions.

Membership Book Signing- 07/10/16,

Becoming a member of UU Detroit involved 2 steps: (1.) Signing the Membership Book, (2.) Making a financial pledge and/or (3.) Making a donation of record to the Church. Please contact Regina Weiss if you have any questions at: regina.a.weiss@gmail.com. Please have your new member forms completed; the forms may be found at: <http://www.1stuu.org/Membership/membership.php>

Committee Fair -07/17/16

Learn about the volunteer opportunities at UU Detroit. Committees are a great way to meet new people, share your skills and develop new interests. Committee Leaders are encouraged to have a fun, interactive display to promote your group. The date has been changed from July 10th. For more information, please contact Regina Weiss.

Announcements and Events – July 3, 2016

Settled Minister Search Committee

The Board regretfully accepted the resignations of Robert Johnson and Aletha Oberdier as members of the Settled Minister Search Committee. We appreciate their commitment to our community and understand that they must honor their commitment to themselves, as well. We wish Robert and Aletha well as they continue in other leadership roles at UU Detroit. The Board will be considering replacements for Robert and Aletha; we'll announce any new search committee members in the July newsletter.

Child Care Needs---Small Toys and Volunteers

The Child Care Committee has had some success in providing child care during the service and wants to continue to improve and expand our service. Currently we would like donations of a few small toy trucks and cars, a few simple board games and large Legos.

We also continue to need volunteers who can periodically provide child care during the Sunday morning service. We provide care on an as needed basis so each of us takes a Sunday of the month when we plan to be in church to help care for young children whose parents/caregivers are attending the service. Then we find another child care volunteer to help with the care as the law requires that there be two people caring for children at all times in these circumstances.

If you can help with either donations or become a volunteer, please contact either Richard Hillier or Sally Borden.

Sunday Sermons and Events

7/10 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "A Grown Woman's Tales of Detroit"
Speaker: Marsha Music
Marsha Music will share from her two acclaimed essays, The Kidnapped Children of Detroit - about the mid-last century flight from Detroit, and Just Say Hi (the Gentrification Blues) - about the flight back to the city.

Marsha Music, writer and poet, is the daughter of legendary pre-Motown record producer Joe Von Battle, and has life-long roots in Highland Park and Detroit. She reflects upon Detroit and its musical legacy in several literary anthologies and on her blog, Marsha Music – A Grown Woman's Tales of Detroit. She is a veteran activist and former labor leader, now dedicated to affirming accurate Detroit narratives. Ms. Music is a noted speaker, storyteller and a contributor to many oral history projects and films.

A self-described "Detroitist", Marsha Music has been acclaimed for her one-woman show, "Live From Hastings Street" and her essays, including "The Kidnapped Children of Detroit" and her epic poem, "Just Say Hi (The Gentrification Blues)." She is a 2012 Kresge Literary Arts Fellow, a 2015 Knight Arts Challenge awardee, and 2016 Ideas City Detroit Fellow. In 2015, her poetry was commissioned for the celebrated Symphony in D, which she read in performances with the DSO. Ms. Music is a dynamic presence in the arts community and widely regarded as a Detroit ambassador. She lives in historic Lafayette Park, works in the courts, and is married to artist David Philpot.

7/17 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Mandela"
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
On the weekend that the world commemorates the life of Nelson Mandela, we consider one of the moral giants of our time

7/24 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Heartland - Where Faiths Connect"
Speaker: UU Detroit Members
The theme of this year's UUA General Assembly, recently held in Columbus OH, was, "Heartland - Where Faiths Connect". Join us to hear some of UU Detroit's members speak about their impressions of G.A. from a spiritual perspective.

7/31 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Breaking Good"
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
Two years ago, one of television's most popular shows, "Breaking Bad," went off the air. Its central character, Walter White, on a descent into evil, is a fascinating study of human ambition and self-delusion over the course of its five seasons. We will examine what "Breaking Bad" might teach us about how to live well in a world that sometimes pulls us toward the worst sides of our natures.
