My Life Flows On in Endless Song #108

Early Quaker Song

1 My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation. I hear the real though far-off hymn that hails a new creation. Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing. It sounds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing!

2 What though the tempest 'round me roars, I know the truth, it liveth. What though the darkness 'round me close, songs in the night it giveth. No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging. Since love prevails in heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing!

3 When tyrants tremble as they hear the bells of freedom ringing, when friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing! To prison cell and dungeon vile our thoughts to them are winging; when friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing!

For the Beauty of the Earth #21

words by Folliot Sanford Pierpont

1 For the beauty of the earth, for the splendor of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies:

(Chorus) Source of all, to thee we raise this, our hymn of grateful praise.

2 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's delight, for the mystic harmony linking sense to sound and sight: (Chorus)

3 For the wonder of each hour of the day and of the night, hill and vale and tree and flower, sun and moon and stars of light: (Chorus)

4 For the joy of human care, sister, brother, parent, child, for the kinship we all share, for all gentle thoughts and mild: (Chorus)

Every Time I Feel the Spirit #208

African American Spiritual

(Chorus) Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray. Yes, ev'ry time I feel the Spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.

1 Upon the mountain, my God spoke, o'er the mount came fire and smoke. All around me looks so shine, ask my God if all was mine. (Chorus)

2 The River Jordan runs right cold, chills the body, not the soul. Ain't but one train on this track, runs to heaven and right back. (Chorus)

Reading: #651 The Body Is Humankind

I am a single cell in a body of four billion cells. The body is humankind. I am a single cell. My needs are individual but they are not unique.

I am interlocked with other human beings in the consequences of our actions, thoughts, and feelings.

I will work for human unity and human peace; for a moral order in harmony with the order of the universe.

Together we share the quest for a society of the whole equal to our needs,

A society in which we need not live beneath our moral capacity, and in which justice has a life of its own.

We are single cells in a body of four billion cells. The body is humankind.

~Norman Cousins

Announcements and Events – July 20, 2014

Sunday Morning Coffee Hour

All are welcome to join us after the service in the Social Hall for Social Hour. Please remember that your donations to Social Hour make our hospitality possible.

Vespers Wednesday

Vespers runs from 6:00 - 7:00pm on the 2nd Wednesday of each month.

Milestones

If you have a milestone (joy or sorrow) to share, please write the message on an index card which you can find in the back of the pew in front of you, and place the card in the offering basket during the collection. If you are a visitor and did not get a chance to fill out one of our visitor forms on the way in, please write your name and contact information on one of these index cards and place it in the offering basket. Milestones and visitor names will be passed to the minister for sharing with the congregation as part of our closing circle.

Chancel Flower Donations

Our custom for providing flowers for each Sunday service is to have members and friends donate them in honor or memory of a person or event. The suggested donation of $20 is negotiable if your situation requires. Lencha Acker purchases the flowers each Saturday at Eastern Market and brings them to church. The donor takes the flowers home to enjoy and returns the vase later. If you have any questions or would like to sign up, see Tamara after service or send her an email. There are lots of 2014 dates still available!

Save the Date - Save the Planet

Wed., 8/6 - 7 pm - Royal Oak Library, 222 E 11 Mile, 69th Annual Hiroshima Commemoration. Speaker: Lawrence S. Wittner, Professor of History emeritus, State University of New York/Albany. He has taught around the world for 43 years; authored 9 books including Confronting the Bomb: A short History of the World Nuclear Disarmament Movement. "This study indicates that nuclear arms control and disarmament measures have resulted primarily from the efforts of a worldwide nuclear disarmament campaign, the biggest mass movement of modern history." ## Church-Related Activities

- 7/20 Detroit Historical Museum, Storytellers Festival through 5 PM (started at 11 AM)
- 7/21 Mon., Amnesty International.
- 7/26 Sat., 10:00 a.m. Young Adults Go Hiking! Let's get a reprieve from city dwelling and enjoy some natural space! Join us for a moderate difficulty hike in Shelby Township's Stony Creek Metropark. Remember to pack your walking shoes, sunscreen, snack, water, and a swim suit! We will meet at the trail head at Southdale Beach. Contact Beth Bailey for more info.
- 7/27 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Walls, Fences, and Gates." It has been said that good fences make good neighbors. A major challenge for every organism, and organization, is to set appropriate boundaries.
- 8/2 Sat., Main Library. Free one-hour docent-led tour of its art, architecture and collections. Sherry says it's astonishing—hidden-in-plain-sight gems. Register: www.dplfriends.com
- 8/3 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Prayin' for the Big Easy God." Wardell Montgomery is a Detroit folk poet. He has spoken in our pulpit before as part of the poetry collective that he founded with Ron Allen.
12:30 p.m. Rev. Mohr gives background about UUism and our congregation to those new to it and to us.
- 8/6 Wed., 7 pm - Save the Date - Save the Planet (see reverse)
- 8/10 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "In Praise of Memory." Mary Minock, a poet and memoirist, and long-time Detroiter, reads from her published memoir, The Way-Back Room: A Memoir of a Detroit Childhood (Bottom Dog Press, 2011). She then offers examples from her process of writing it to comment on the transcendent power of an active memory of the past. Memory is actually a dialogue with the present, and so truth(s) that are uncovered are ever-changing and ever rich in possibility. Studied excursions into memory promise to keep us from the rocks of nostalgia and guide us as we navigate the future.
