Sunday Sermons

9/30, TODAY, 11:00am – “Remember Who You Are”

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

Whether we are watching The Lion King or a staging of Hamlet, the theme of remembering who we are in the midst of life's changes is a profound part of moving forward in a morally fulfilling and affirmative way.

10/7 11:00am – “Every Least Sparrow”

Carolyn Walker, Guest Speaker

A partnership of writing and mothering proved to be a godsend for Carolyn Walker, who began her career as a columnist shortly before her daughter Jennifer was born in 1977. Jennifer came into the world with a rare developmental disability that mystified even doctors, called Rubinstein-Taybi Syndrome. She soon learned through the power of writing about Jennifer that she could give a voice to the disabled and those who care for them. This was not a gift to be wasted. Walker's column eventually grew into the book Every Least Sparrow, a mother and daughter odyssey, a mother and daughter love story. Walker has a Master of Fine Arts in Writing degree from Vermont College of Fine Arts and is a Kresge Fellow in the Literary Arts. She will be selling her book during the coffee hour; stop by and have her autograph your copy.
