

Today's Music

Prelude: Toccatina in C Major BWV 564

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

J. S. Bach, the so-called "Father of Western Music" himself came from a well-established musical family that produced some 50 professional musicians over a period of 200 years.

Musical Meditation: Rondo Expressivo

Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach (1714-1788)

CPE Bach was the second surviving son of J. S. Bach. Musically, he is considered to depart from his father's famous Baroque style with music that was more emotional and labeled as "emfidsamer still" or "sensitive style:"

Offertory: Allegro Assai from Sonata in F major K 332 (1778)

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

Recessional: March

Sunday Sermons and Events

TODAY 10/1: 11:00AM - On Genealogy [8/13/17]

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister
In my family, my grandmother was very interested in our genealogy and studied it assiduously. More recently, my father took on the task and started employing more modern techniques. How much is who we are determined but from whence we came?

10/8: 11:00AM – Detroit Today

Stephen Henderson
Stephen Henderson, editorial page editor for the Detroit Free Press, hosts a daily radio show, "Detroit Today," on WDET 101.9 FM, Detroit's public radio station as well as weekly tv shows, "American Black Journal" and "MiWeek," both on Detroit Public Television. Former editorial page editor of The Michigan Daily, Henderson has been a reporter or editor of several major newspaper organizations, including the Knight Ridder Washington Bureau, where he covered the U.S. Supreme Court from 2003-2007. Stephen Henderson's awards include the 2014 Pulitzer Prize for commentary, the 2016 Scripps Howard Award, the 2017 ASNE writing award for editorials. He was also the National Association of Black Journalists' pick for Journalist of the Year in 2014.

10/15: 11:00AM – The Voice Under the Voice

Dr. Jim Perkinson ETS
The signs of our time shout! An entire planet raises an increasingly insistent voice, challenging our entire species in its conceit as supreme. Water is Earth's prophet. Harvey and Irma mere punctuation. Nigeria and Bangladesh a deep warning and test. La Tuna and Eagle Creek the voice running silent and hot. We have hardly even begun to listen. Will we ever? The time is late.
James W. Perkinson is a long-time activist/educator/poet from inner city Detroit, currently teaching as Professor of Social Ethics at the Ecumenical Theological Seminary and lecturing in Intercultural Communication Studies at the University of Oakland (Michigan).

10/22: 11:00AM – Strings Attached: What Connects Us

Diane Shipley DeCillis
Inspired by the 7th principle of Unitarianism, I look forward to discussing separation, attachment, and connection, which are salient themes in my poetry and stories. Diane DeCillis' poetry collection, Strings Attached (Wayne State Univ. Press, 2014) has been honored as a Michigan Notable Book for 2015, won The 2015 Next Generation Indie Book Award for poetry, and was a finalist for the Forward Indie Fab Book Award for poetry.
