

Today's Music

Prelude: Hoedown from "Excursions for the Piano"
op 20
Samuel Barber

Musical Meditation: Adagio molto from Autumn op 8 no 3
Antonio Vivaldi

Offertory: Allegro from Autumn op 8 no 3
Antonio Vivaldi

*Celebrates the peasant, with songs and dances,
The pleasure of a bountiful harvest.
And fired up by Bacchus' liquor,
many end their revelry in sleep.*

Poetry by Vivaldi or perhaps his colleague to accompany this movement (translated)

Recessional: 'Tis Autumn

Announcements and Events – October 23, 2016

Chancel Flower Donations

Today’s flowers are given by Danny Rebb as a ‘thank you’ to the congregation for all the great friendships he has at UU Detroit!

Child Care Committee

The Child Care Committee is looking for a few more people to provide child care during the Sunday service in the child care room at the back of the sanctuary. See Richard Hillier or Sally Borden for more information.

October 26 Vespers will highlight the poetry of early African-American poet Paul Dunbar along with selections from other poets, a taste of Halloween and recorded music. Many thanks to Lee Thume and Gwen Foss for last month’s beautiful live music. See you all at 6:00 PM in the parlor for a quiet time of relaxation and reflection.

Book Discussion

The Third Reconstruction: Moral Mondays, Fusion Politics, and the Rise of a New Justice Movement by the Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II with Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove. Join us for a book discussion on Sunday, November 13, 2016, at 12:30 pm. The book is available from the UUA bookstore or your favorite source for good reads. The church’s neighborhood shop, Source Booksellers, has copies or can order them. We’ll be using the UUA study guide to start discussion.

Sunday Sermons and Events

- 10/30 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Festival of Lights.”
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
The celebration of the Hindu holiday of Diwali, “The Festival of Lights,” is the closest that most religions come to a party. We will explore what Diwali means to Hindus and why it often is the most popular holiday to be celebrated on college campuses today.
- 11/6 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Justice and Compassion.”
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
Continuing this sermon series over the course of several months, we are exploring and meditating upon the Seven Principles upon which the Unitarian Universalist Association bases its relationships. The Second Principle of the UUA is that of “Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.”
- 11/13 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “After the Election.”
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
The first week after the elections, our country will have a better sense of the next steps in our nation’s 240 year history. We will know not only who our next President will be, but also the results for the House and Senate. Emerging from a rancorous campaign season that has turned political parties upside down, how do we reaffirm an America which seems more divided than ever? How can we speak a unifying message of hope into this situation?
- 11/20 11:00 a.m. Sermon, “Food Justice: Challenges and Possibilities.”
Speaker: Malik Kenyatta
Malik Kenyatta Yakini is a founder and the Executive Director of the Detroit Black Community Food Security Network (DBCFSN). DBCFSN operates a seven-acre urban farm and is spearheading the opening of a co-op grocery store in Detroit’s North End. Yakini views the “good food revolution” as part of the larger movement for freedom, justice and equality.
