Sunday Sermons

10/28, TODAY, 11:00AM – “Our Universalist Roots and Branches”

The Rev. Kalen Fristad, Guest Speaker

Reverend Fristad will be speaking on universalism as it relates to John Murray and Thomas Potter, the American colonies, and from then to the present. In this sermon, he will expand upon his "Universalism: Past, Present and Powerful" sermon given at First UU Detroit on 4/29/18. Reverend Fristad is a United Methodist minister, a member of the Unitarian Universalist Christian Fellowship, and author of the book, DESTINED FOR SALVATION: God's Promise to Save Everyone. After serving churches in Iowa for 27 years, in retirement, he travels the country speaking on Universalism

11/4 11:00AM – “Love Ye One Another...Except in the Voting Booth”

Dr. Terri Laws, Guest Speaker

We have moral obligations to one another as we consider how we vote. We are told that we should vote in our own self-interest. In light of every major religion's obligation to treat others as we would want to be treated, on this Sunday before election day, Dr. Laws will challenge our thinking on how we exercise such a principle as citizens in a democracy.
