The Ministerial Search Committee has completed its compilation of the data from our 2016 Congregational Survey and the results are now available for viewing.

Thank you for your outstanding response. We received 77 surveys, many of which had to be entered manually into the data base. This was an exacting and time-consuming process and we appreciate your patience.

Sunday Sermons and Events

- 11/6 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Justice and Compassion."
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
Continuing this sermon series over the course of several months, we are exploring and meditating upon the Seven Principles upon which the Unitarian Universalist Association bases its relationships. The Second Principle of the UUA is that of "Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations."
- 11/13 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "After the Election."
Speaker: Reverend Stephen Butler Murray
The first week after the elections, our country will have a better sense of the next steps in our nation's 240 year history. We will know not only who our next President will be, but also the results for the House and Senate. Emerging from a rancorous campaign season that has turned political parties upside down, how do we reaffirm an America which seems more divided than ever? How can we speak a unifying message of hope into this situation?
- 11/20 11:00 a.m. Sermon, "Food Justice: Challenges and Possibilities."
Speaker: Malik Kenyatta
Malik Kenyatta Yakini is a founder and the Executive Director of the Detroit Black Community Food Security Network (DBCFSN). DBCFSN operates a seven-acre urban farm and is spearheading the opening of a co-op grocery store in Detroit's North End. Yakini views the "good food revolution" as part of the larger movement for freedom, justice and equality.
