
Today's Music

Prelude: Make Them Hear You from the musical "Ragtime" (1996)
music by Stephen Flaherty, words by Lynn Ahrens
*Go out and tell our story, Let it echo far and wide.
Make them hear you, Make them hear you.
How justice was our battle, And how justice was denied.
Make them hear you, Make them hear you.
And say to those who blame us for the way we chose to fight
That sometimes there are battles that are more than black or white...
And I could not put down my sword when justice was my right.
Make them hear you. Make them hear you.*

Choir Anthem: Seize the Day from the musical "Newsies" lyrics by Jack Feldmen, music by Alan Menken

Musical Meditation: America The Beautiful

Victor, Ze Bell Jean Paul and Emile Kojidie

The words "Waka waka" are from a traditional African soldier song named
"Zangalewa", and translates to "Do the job" or "Get the task done"

Sunday Sermons

11/4, TODAY, 11:00AM – "Love Ye One Another...Except in the Voting Booth"

Dr. Terri Laws, Guest Speaker

We have moral obligations to one another as we consider how we vote. We are told that we should vote in our own self-interest. In light of every major religion's obligation to treat others as we would want to be treated, on this Sunday before election day, Dr. Laws will challenge our thinking on how we exercise such a principle as citizens in a democracy.
