We Would Be One #318
words by Samuel Anthony Wright, music by Jean Sibelius

1 We would be one as now we join in singing our hymn of love, to pledge ourselves anew to that high cause of greater understanding of who we are, and what in us is true. We would be one in living for each other to show to all a new community.

2 We would be one in building for tomorrow a nobler world than we have known today. We would be one in searching for that meaning which bends our hearts and points us on our way. As one, we pledge ourselves to greater service, with love and justice, strive to make us free.

Dona Nobis Pacem #388

When the Spirit Says Do #1024
African-American Spiritual from the Civil rights period

1. You gotta do when the spirit says do!
   You gotta do when the spirit says do!
   When the spirit says do, you got to do, Oh Lord
   You got to do when the spirit says do!
   Spirit says do! Spirit says do!
   Spirit says do! Spirit says do!
   Spirit says do! Spirit says do!

2. You gotta shout when the spirit says shout! ...
   Spirit says shout!...

3. You gotta dance when the spirit says dance! ...
   Spirit says dance!...

Reading: To the Four Directions

Spirit of the East, spirit of air,
of morning and springtime:
Be with us as the sun rises,
in times of beginning,
times of planting.
    *Inspire us with the fresh breath of courage
    as we go forth into new adventures.

Spirit of the South, spirit of fire,
of noontime and summer:
Be with us through the heat of the day and help us to be ever growing.
    *Warm us with strength
    and energy for the work that awaits us.

Spirit of the West, spirit of water,
of evening and autumn:
Be with us as the sun sets
and help us to enjoy a rich harvest.
    *Flow through us with a cooling,
    healing quietness and bring us peace.

Spirit of the North, spirit of earth,
of nighttime and winter:
Be with us in the darkness,
in the time of gestation.

Ground us in the wisdom of the changing seasons
as we celebrate the spiraling journey of our lives.

~Joan Goodwin
