Upcoming Sermon Schedule

July 7th — “Research & Spirituality”

Irene Brisson, Guest Speaker

How can the spiritual search for truth and meaning be figured as a sort of research project? In short, what are questions to ask ourselves and others in this pursuit?

Reflecting on the practices of scientific inquiry, I consider the role of repetition in spiritual traditions. Intersecting the writings of physicist Michael Faraday, poet T.S. Elliot, and the biblical Ecclesiastes, I offer a meditation on time, inquiry, and return in the pursuit of knowledge -- sacred and profane.

July 14th — “Children in Cages”

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

The humanitarian crisis at the American southern border is becoming an increasingly horrific situation. As families seek asylum in the United States, their children are separated from them, kept in deplorable conditions, sometimes shipped away to entire other parts of the country, with no system for how to reunite them. Today, we will focus on this issue and how we, as a faith community, might step into the fray in addressing this situation as part of our focus on immigration issues.

July 21st — “On Faith and Science”

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

I want to take on the often-utilized false dichotomy of religion and science, which creates the impression that people of faith by practice reject science, and that scientists by virtue of their worldview must eschew faith. To quote Shakespeare's Hamlet, “There are more things in heaven and earth... Than are dreamt of in your philosophy.”

July 28th — “Values in Space”

Joel Batterman, Guest Speaker

Star Trek, Star Wars, Firefly, and other science fiction hits are set in the far reaches of outer space. But they're so popular because they speak directly to our own world's most pressing ethical and spiritual questions, although the answers they give are markedly different. What are the insights and blind spots of each approach, and might they help this troubled planet find its way forward?

Words to live by

“Where's your church?”

“We're standing in it.”

“But this is a bookstore and it's a Friday.”

“Yes, but you might also choose to see it as a cathedral of the human spirit – a storehouse consecrated to the full spectrum of human experience. Just about every idea we've ever had is in here somewhere. A place containing great thinking is a sacred space.”

Announcements

Support for Rranxburgaj family

We have participated in a letter-writing campaign in the past for Ded Rranxburgaj, who remains in sanctuary at Central United Methodist Church to avoid deportation. Over 600 letters were submitted to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Rebecca Cooke was invited by Michigan United to read her letter at a demonstration at the Detroit offices of ICE last year.

Here's another opportunity to support the Rranxburgajs, who have no means of support without Ded's salary: you, your friends, loved ones, and community members are invited to join the family at a benefit dinner on July 2nd from 6:00-8:00 PM at Central United Methodist Church, 23 E Adams Ave in downtown Detroit. Tickets are $25 and available online or from Glenn Maxwell, 248-219-5873.

Viola Liuzzo statue

Detroit artist Austen Brantley is creating a sculpture of civil rights martyr Viola Liuzzo. The official unveiling is Tuesday, July 23rd, 11:00 AM, at the Viola Liuzzo Playground, 20087 Winthrop St in Detroit, off Greenfield and M-10/Lodge Fwy, just south of 8 Mile Rd. Viola Liuzzo was attending UU Detroit when she heeded the call of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr to help with the Montgomery bus boycott during the civil rights movement. She was murdered in Selma, AL in March 1965.

Member News

Welcome our newest member!

John Van Camp has signed our membership book! John has been involved with various other churches in the past, including Episcopalian and UU. He worked for Southwest Solutions for 45 years and retired as their Executive Director.

John feels that UU Detroit is a good fit for him and enjoys the services and the people. He now lives downtown. Welcome, John!

Congratulations Gray-Chang family!

From Sean Gray's Facebook page: “I'm excited to announce the birth of our second and final biological child! She came to us on June 2, 2019 after 41 weeks of pregnancy and 2 hours of labor. It seems like time flew by since we began planning to have these babies over a decade ago but Stephanie Gray Chang has only become more beautiful. Glad to be raising these young women to get about the business of burning down what remains of the patriarchy with a strong and brilliant woman like their mom.”

Happy 90th John Angry!

This snapshot was taken during social hour at UU Detroit on Sunday, June 2nd, by Roman Nuñez, while members of the choir, including Sally Borden, Nancy Owen Nelson, and Dan Secrest, were singing a version of “happy birthday” by Lee Thume, with Lee’s daughter, Ann Esu, making the fourth member of a quartet. John Angry in his straw birthday hat was honored for his 90th birthday (which was June 4th). Also in the picture is 91-year old Bob Neale, another longtime UU Detroit member.

*Happy birthday to our 90-year old friend!
May the pleasures of your birthday never end.
May its hours be filled with harmony and sweet surprise,
Such as the love you see reflected from your dear ones’
eyes.
May this birthday be the best you’ve known thus far
As we celebrate the person that you are,
One so giving and reliable
For whom it’s undeniable
You’ve earned the right to celebrate, and how!
So have yourself a happy birthday right now.*

(L-R) S Borden, N Owen Nelson, A Esu, B Neale, D Secrest, J Angry

B Neale (l) and J Angry (r)

Lee was kind enough to share the words to her song:

Here from El Salvador

Joel Batterman and Julie Brock are sponsoring an asylum seeker from El Salvador through the Santa Fe Dreamers Project. Daniella Garcia Salamanca arrived in Detroit on June 12th. UU Detroit Spanish speakers who welcomed Daniella at our service on June 16th were very much appreciated, especially Carmen Malis King and Roman Nuñez, who speak fluent Spanish. Roman took Daniella under his wing and shared a table and conversation during social hour. Daniella’s first priority is to learn English, after which she hopes to work on transgender rights. She promises to visit UU Detroit often!

Get well soon

Airlie Strasser is recovering from successful open-heart valve surgery and welcomes your calls at 734-558-0409.

Constance C. Hart

Former church member Connie Hart, who was born November 7, 1929, passed away in the late fall of 2018 in Haverford PA. A musician who sang and played guitar, Connie was the author of new words to Hymn #18, “What Wonderous Love,” in our gray hymnal, Singing the Living Tradition. Connie identified publicly as a lesbian in the 1980s when it was unusual to be openly gay. She was a member of the Unitarian Universalist Women’s Federation. Connie gave her house in Detroit to the church when she moved out of state in the late 1990s and she left an additional monetary bequest in her will. We appreciate Connie's generosity and convey our deepest sympathies to the family.

Herz documentary update

Director Betsy Kalin writes, “As some of you know, I’m working on Phoenix: The Life and Death of Alice Herz — a documentary about Alice, a peace activist who was erased from US history for her act of self-immolation to protest the Vietnam War. She was mentioned in The Washington Post yesterday! The [article was published on May 30] After Arnav Gupta’s self-immolation death this week, the article asserts that these are unmistakable acts of protest and we need to be listening: ‘82-year-old Alice Herz, after returning from a demonstration against racial violence in Selma, Ala., walked to a street corner in Detroit and set herself on fire. She had been protesting, marching and writing against the war in Vietnam and racial segregation in the American South. She had told her friends and family she was not being heard.’ This is another example that the time is right for our story! Please help us to tell it.”

Alice Herz, and her daughter, Helga, were longtime members of UU Detroit. Alice immolated herself in March 1965. The documentary explores her life and death while questioning why she has been erased from history as both an intellectual leader of the twentieth century and as a courageous woman effecting social change.

Migrant children installation

On June 1st, UU Detroiters showed up to pound stakes and mount stuffed toys on the Commons’ lawn at the corner of Cass and Prentis for an installation representing migrant children separated from their parents. The story was featured in the Detroit News and the Metro Times. The latter reported:

“A woodland of hundreds of toys, dolls, teddy bears, and other stuffed animals are spread throughout the front lawn of the First Unitarian Universalist Church in the Cass Corridor, with a large banner hanging across the background that reads, ‘For the thousands of separated immigrant children.’”

“The installation [is] a poignant visual representation of the thousands of children who have been separated from their families under the Trump administration.”

Cass Corridor Commons, Cass @ Prentis

Thank you to Dan Wiest who organized the installation, to Tim Bailey who did the legwork, to Suzanne Baker, Marloes Krabbe, Gerhard Krabbe, Nancy Owen Nelson and Roger Ziegler who helped with setup, and to those who shared your photos on Facebook.

From our neighbor

We were delighted to receive the following note after Jennifer Teed attended Iftar on the final day of Ramadan at our neighbor, Wayne State University Islamic Center. Jenny was joined by Rev. John Marsh, Interim Minister at the East Lansing UU Church.

Hello/As Salaam Alaikum (Peace Be Onto/Upon You).

I would like to very quickly thank Jennifer and Rev. John for attending Iftar with us a few days ago. Our community was delighted and grateful, and we hope great neighborly tradition was born that we will continue.

On behalf of the Board of the University Islamic Center, Volunteers and the Community, we send love and thanks to all of you. Let's keep talking, even if our joint events are not too frequent. Communication is a peace builder; it engenders mutual understanding.

Motor City Pride parade

Dan Wiest organized another joyous and inspiring march through downtown Detroit in the 2019 Motor City Pride parade on June 9th.

Carrying our banner down Griswold and Jefferson streets were (left-right) Dan Horrigan, Kathe Stevens, Dan Wiest, Ruby Jones, Martha Bogner, and Roman Nuñez.

K Stevens, R Jones, M Bogner, D Wiest, R Nuñez, D Horrigan

The late Nathan Strickland, Jr. was in our hearts and our thoughts as we marched. Hugs and tears were shared with Nate's mom, Debra Strickland, who was marching with Nate's employer, Community Health Awareness Group. Nate was one of the organizers of our participation in the Pride march last year. We miss him so much.

Share the Plate

Our June Share the Plate guest recipient was LGBT Detroit (<https://www.lgbtdetroit.org/>), a Detroit based nonprofit organization whose mission is to increase awareness of and support to Detroit's dynamic LGBT culture through education and advocacy with integrity and pride. For over two decades, LGBT Detroit has been receiving unwavering support from neighboring communities in any capacity that promotes the wellbeing and integrity involved in fostering an environment conducive to lesbian, gay, bi and transgender individuals irrespective of race, culture or socio-economic status. The community support is manifested in their advocating, partnership, testifying before local and state legislators, providing safe gathering spaces where members of the LGBT community can interact without fear of persecution or bigotry. We support LGBT Detroit and its efforts to help raise the consciousness of our region.

Vespers

June vespers at Henry Ford Village featured Nancy Shattuck, who presented a sampling of world-wide poetry in which the poets speak directly to higher beings...spirits. The poems of Gerard Manley Hopkins, Rumi, Emily Dickinson, Izumi Shikibu, and Jack Gilbert were accompanied by Indo-Persian instrumental music, a native American song to Wankan Tanka, "Anthem" by Leonard Cohen, and more.

The next monthly vespers is Wed. July 24th at 15101 Ford Rd, Dearborn, from 6:00-7:00 PM in the Library Reading Room, which is accessible from the Great Lakes entrance. The library is labeled 13 on this campus map.

Denominational News

Support LGBT ministries

The Rev. Susan Frederick-Gray, UUA President, writes: "Historically, faith communities haven't always been the most welcoming of places for LGBTQ people. Nearly thirty years ago the UUA set out to change that with a new program to guide congregations in becoming truly open and accepting of LGBTQ members and visitors: Welcoming Congregations."

UU Detroit first successfully completed the requirements to become a Welcoming Congregation in 1997; in 2015 we successfully renewed our status as a Welcoming Congregation. In 2018, the UUA instituted updated requirements to remain a Welcoming Congregation, The Five Practices. From the UUA Welcoming Congregation page:

"We wish to be bolder with our Welcome. Transgender Unitarian Universalists are still struggling to find community in UU congregations. Bisexual UUs suffer from invisibility while asexual, intersex, and polyamorous communities are wrestling with a progressive faith that does not privilege their truth. These and the many more social ills that plague our LGBTQ+ and TGQNB communities are calling us into a deeper commitment to insure that our Unitarian Universalist congregations are living into the Welcome that we boldly proclaim. As such, we are unveiling the The Five Practices of Welcome Renewal."

The Five Practices summarized:

1. Become a Welcoming Congregation — done
2. Welcoming Worship Services — done

3. Welcoming Days of Observance — entered on church calendar for future planning
4. Welcoming Congregation Module — TBA
5. Support a Welcoming Project — TBA

Your Board and Worship Committee have discussed how to implement The Five Practices.

Rev. Frederick-Gray asks us to consider a gift to support the UUA as we seek to be truly welcoming to all in our midst. You can make a gift online, or by phone at (888) 792-5885.

Rev. James Reeb

Alice Herz and Viola Liuzzo were mentioned earlier in this newsletter, both of whom died in March 1965. Another UU who died in March 1965 was Rev. James Reeb of Boston, MA. Like Viola Liuzzo, he was murdered in Selma, AL while answering the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr's call to clergy to participate in the Montgomery, AL bus boycott. National Public Radio presents a seven-part serialized podcast on Rev. Reeb's murder, White Lies, hosted by investigative journalists Chip Brantley and Andrew Beck Grace, in which they explore why Rev. Reeb's murder has not been solved for 50 years. Listen online at <https://www.npr.org/podcasts/510343/white-lies>.

Migrant justice

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee's Petition to Close Down the Homestead Child Detention Center in Florida, signed by more than 100,000 individuals, was delivered to the U.S. Health and Human Services Department in Washington DC. UUSC members also demonstrated in front of Homestead, where 2,000 children currently are locked up. Follow UUSC migrant work at: <https://www.uusc.org/news/>.

Save the date

The UUA will sponsor a UU Conference on the Climate Emergency, September 15-17 in Washington, DC. Details will be forthcoming as they are announced by the UUA.

Our history of fighting for civil liberties in the world and advocating for Detroit at home is long and strong. Our roots in Detroit go back over 185 years: Universalists first worshiped in Detroit in 1831, Unitarians in 1833. One hundred years later, an experimental union of the two congregations led to an official merger, preceding the national merger of the two denominations (in 1961) by 27 years.

Radical thinkers who worshipped, spoke, met, and organized within our congregations include ground-breaking African-Americans; civil rights crusaders; progressive politicians; icons of women's movements; promoters of workers' rights; LGBTQ pioneers; peace activists and martyrs; environmental champions; immigration reformists; trailblazing authors, poets, educators, scientists, architects, and musicians.

Seeking solace in community and a vision of how to put faith into action — from 19th century abolitionists to 20th century suffragettes to 21st century water warriors — we have lived out and continue to live out our Principles.

OUR SEVEN PRINCIPLES:

- 1st: The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- 2nd: Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- 3rd: Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- 4th: A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- 5th: The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- 6th: The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- 7th: Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
